REFLECTION

"CHRIST IS RISEN. ALLELUIA!"

*The empty tomb, and the neatly folded burial cloths, were signs that led the Beloved Disciple to believe that Jesus had risen from the dead.
In the witness of the apostles, and the faithfulness, courage and love of our fellow Christians, we too have powerful signs that Christ is risen and lives among us. Observing them, our faith cries out: 'Alleluia!'*

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

I Believe – Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

AN EASTER POEM

by Nicholas Tan: Year 12 participant and student leader of our youth group

GOLGOTHA

Eli,
A crown of thorns,
A tattered robe of purple;
The clothes our King would die in.
He took up His cross to set us free,
Burdened by our sins.
Sweat dripping,
Blood running,
Tears falling.

Eli,
For no one believed He was the King,
They mocked and whipped and slapped him,
Took His clothes and gambled for them –
Testing their luck on humanity's saviour.
In the place of the skull,
With arms outstretched, side maimed,
Hands and feet nailed to the unyielding wood,
His body paralysed, but the Spirit free.

Lema sabachthani?
And so he hung.
Under the unrelenting sun,
Rotting, suffocating, dying,
He cried His last words
And bowed His head,
The sky was covered
In a suffocating, Stygian blanket,
Enveloping the heavens above,
Our sins reflected, exposed for all to see.

Then they took Him down
From that dreaded crucifix,
And wrapped Him in snowy linen.
They placed His body in the hollow tomb,
Left it there to die, to pass, to rest.

But that was not to be His final grave.
Throwing off his garments, His earthly chains,
He overcame death; He rose
To life, to Heaven, to God.
And with outstretched arms He will receive us
In the heavens far above,
And in the deepest depths of our hearts.
